With a growing population of Americans age 65 years or older, the importance of planning for one's legal needs has become essential. Elder Law attorneys throughout the country will commemorate National Elder Law Month by providing public seminars, living will days, Elder Law clinics, and other activities that will educate the public.

About Elder and Special Needs Law

An Elder Law and Special Needs Law attorney handles estate planning and counsels clients about planning for incapacity with health care decision-making documents. They also assist clients in planning for long-term care needs, including at-home care, assisted living or nursing home care. Locating the appropriate type of care, coordinating public and private resources to finance the cost of care and working to ensure the client's right to quality care are all part of the Elder and Special Needs Law practice.

About NAELA

Members of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA) are attorneys who are experienced and trained in working with the legal problems of aging Americans and individuals of all ages with disabilities. Established in 1987, NAELA is a non-profit association that assists lawyers, bar organizations and others. For more information, visit NAELA.org.
